Dietz's Diamond Oil.

WE NOW OFFER TO THE PUBLIC in full confidence a new article of KEROSENE OIL,
Which we warrant in every particular to be Superior to any other Oil ever brought to the San Francisco market. It has been thoroughly tested in all the different Patent Coal Oil Burners, and found to possess
More Light and Burn Longer
by one-third, than any other oil in use.

Above the many advantages of this KEROSENE OIL over other oils are: First, that it is perfectly NON-EXPLOSIVE, and can be used with perfect safety in all kinds of LAMPS. Second, It is free from all objectionable and unpleasant smells, and burns with a clear white brilliant flame. We cordially solicit the public and FAMILIES to give this Oil a trial, and one trial we feel confident it will gain a preference over all other Oil for economy as well as its superior burning qualities.

In order to protect ourselves against Counterfeits we have placed a brand on each can and case, which will be known as
DIETZ'S DIAMOND OIL.
It is now offered at wholesale and retail at 505 Front street,
Between Washington and Jackson streets,
And at Branch Store, 50 Second street
2d door from Mission, San Francisco.
A. C. DIETZ & CO.

We have on hand a large stock of COAL OIL LAMPS,
which we are selling at New York prices. Also,
Camphene, Coal Oil Fluid,
95 per ct. Alcohol, Turpentine,
Lard, Sperm, Polar, Rape Seed,
Neat's-Foot, Linseed, China, and other Oils, etc., etc.
Country Dealers supplied on the most liberal terms.

The Polls.

Citizens of Portland, and of Multnomah county! go to the polls to-day and deposit your votes like freemen, like honest patriotic citizens, like lovers of your country and lovers of its institutions. Show to the world that you are American citizens, and that you are proud of the country in which you live. Show to the world that you feel the importance and recognize the great privilege vouchsafed to you under the Constitution and laws of the land of expressing your will—of saying what shall and what shall not be done, and of clothing with authority and investing with power those from your midst to act, speak and enforce that will, of delegating to competent and trusty parties that power which you possess, of making and unmaking,—of defending, protecting and enforcing the constitutional guarantees, the rights and privileges, the laws and regulations of your own adoption, and of preserving and perpetuating our national Union—the great palladium of our civil liberties. We counsel no violence, no boisterous, unseemly or riotous demonstrations, but we want you to be firm, be independent, be courageous, and march with solid, steady, resolute will and record your votes in an unmistakable manner for the right, for the government, for the suppression of treason, and for the maintenance of this great Republic. Let there be no faltering, no equivocating, no scratching, no half way performance of your duty in this most important contest. Vote a clean, straight ticket without a blot or a blemish. For you know that the defeat of a candidate for the least office on our ticket will be hailed with great applause, and tend to encourage the opposition.

Remember that to-day is the day in which you are to exercise your majesty. This day belongs to the whole people of Oregon. To-day you are called upon to decide the future destiny of the State of your adoption—whether its honor, reputation, glory and majesty shall be successfully vindicated before the world or not. Whether Oregon is for the Union and the enforcement of the laws or not. Whether Oregon is in favor of the suppression of the present wicked rebellion and of a vigorous prosecution of the war so long as necessary to frustrate the schemes of cruel traitors, or not. Whether Oregon is opposed to any peace other than the honorable and sure one to come, when the rebels and their sympathizers submit to the constitutionally elected authorities of the Republic or not. Whether Oregon will sustain the General Government in the exertion of its utmost energy to defend the Constitution, execute the laws and preserve this great Union or not. In fine whether the voters of Oregon will elect and clothe with authority to insure and unmistakable Union men or not. Or shall Oregon be reckoned with the list of cast off States and her name be recorded on the black roll of infamy, shame and everlasting disgrace. Again we adjure you, by all you hold dear in this life, DECIDE WISELY.

Remember that thousands of anxious eyes and hearts are now waiting to hear what your decision will be. Remember that the friends of the Union all over the nation are deeply interested in the contest this day to be decided by you. Remember that this is the time that East'n patriots are looking to this coast with more than ordinary interest and anxiety to see and experience that we are still true, sound and true to the Government. Remember, this is the first fair opportunity that Oregon has had to speak on this great question. Now, in the name of all that is holy, honorable and virtuous, let that voice go forth in thunder tones, long, loud and clear, that "THE UNION MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED," and a shout will be heard that shall arouse the heavens, resound with praise, and shall cause the very angels in Heaven to rejoice.

Another Secession Falsehood Nailed.

The following item of news was received by last Saturday night's Stage, which was among the late eastern news by telegraph:

"IT HAS BEEN ASCERTAINED FROM AN AUTHENTIC SOURCE THAT THE EXPENDITURES OF GOVERNMENT FROM APRIL 1861 TO THE PRESENT TIME WILL NOT AVERAGE ONE MILLION DOLLARS DAILY. This may be regarded as a refutation of the exaggerated reports on the subject."

Thus it will be seen that all this great blow about the immense expenditures which the war is costing the Government so persistently and loudly heralded through the columns of the secesh organs in Oregon, is a willful exaggeration, utterly false and unfounded.—This is another strong brace cut of those sails as well also, the late intelligence that the President had ignored the proclamation of General Hunter.

This Day.

This day will determine whether Oregon is a secession State, or whether she is true to the Star Spangled Banner and the Union. Words are worth little now. Every man has made up his mind how he will vote.

We are certain that Union men will stand by the Union—and vote for the ticket which is for the Union without a condition. When the stars shine forth this evening, they will shed their lustre over a redeemed and glorious Union State.

Remember!

Remember that Union men embrace the children of all nations—American, the German, the Irish, the French, and all religions—the Catholic, the Protestant, the Jew, and every sect of the Gentile nations,—all who have lived and enjoyed liberty under our glorious Government and Constitution will stand by that Government and Union in this hour of trial. It may be that in all future time the people of all nations congregated under our glorious banner, will never have another opportunity, as they have now to come out and speak in tones that the world shall hear, in behalf of our glorious Union. Let not the record, fellow citizens, of the present be quoted against you in all future time.

Look out—For "Roar backs," "pinch backs," "hunch backs," "hump-backs," "bone backs," "gray backs," "fin-backs," and all other kinds of lying backs" that was ever known or conceived of on the day of an election. Don't heed them, but when they come around you, just give them a "kick back," that will prove such a "set back" as shall cause them to "truck back" beneath their deformed "shell backs."

The above was suggested upon learning that the Advertiser is to make its appearance about nine o'clock this fore noon.

The County Clerkship.

We have reason to believe that a very strong effort will be made by the opposition to elect their candidate for County Clerk, J W Going. We know but little of Mr. Going, and he may be entirely competent for the position, but we do know that he cannot be any more so than Mr J M Breck, the Union candidate for that office, and we further know that Mr Going is found in bad company, and as men are judged by the company they keep, we therefore suggest that it is not safe to trust him. He might prove a [illegible]

"Labor in Vain."

The printing and posting of flaming hand bills all covered with glaring letters, proclaiming that the self styled Democracy in Oregon are in favor of the Union and the maintenance of the Constitution and laws of the country. All such professions and demonstrations are played out, or will be before 6 o'clock to-night.

"You Bet." If you do bet on the Secesh ticket that you'll lose your bet. But "you bet that Union ticket you'll win your bet."

Why is the candidate for State Secretary on the same ticket, like a sickly plant? Because he is done Going.

By Last Night's Mail.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 24th.

Battle at Newbern—Rebels Driven—Portsmouth Gone—Rebels again at Norfolk—Union Men Hung at Petersburg—The Call for Volunteers—Stirring Words from General Burnside—Election in Nashville—Fight near Staunton.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The rebels made a last stand at Cedar Run, some distance at front of Front Royal (Warren county, Va.) this afternoon, and attempted to burn the railroad bridge recently rebuilt by Col Ellsworth over the Shenandoah. Particulars of the fight have not been ascertained. Nothing of interest from the other departments up to twelve o'clock to-night.

NASHVILLE, May 22.—An election was held in this State yesterday for judicial officers. They vote this city stood Circuit Judge, Bacon Union, 1,076 votes; Secessionist, 700. The Secessionists generally voted, which made even the election as invalid. Governor Johnson will give no commissions to Secessionists who may be elected.

The President and Cashier of the Bank of Tennessee were forcibly, yesterday by order of Governor Johnson, upon the change of treasurer.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Nassau dates to the 14th state that seventy rebel vessels were there waiting the termination of the war, preferring to run the gauntlet of capture by the blockaders, which they now acknowledge have effectually sealed Southern ports.

CAIRO, May 24.—A gunboat reconnoissance from the fleet yesterday discovered the rebel fleet at Fulton, about two miles below. There is no doubt that they still hold the fort.

LOUISVILLE, May 24.—It is estimated that there are 1000 deserters at Portsmouth and Norfolk in the force with which Gen Hoge left Norfolk. A large number didn't succeed in escaping until after reaching Petersburg. They are in an awful plight for subsistence. A party who came in say they represent that nearly a thousand more were scattered through the woods. It is believed they are ready to take the oath of allegiance.

The Monitor will proceed to Norfolk to-morrow, and then the whole fleet will have abandoned Old Point and then position at the old Navy Yard. Numerous wrecks that were sunk in the harbor and river by the rebels are to be raised and refitted, including the wreck of the Merrimac.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The reports in regard to another call for volunteers are confirming. The following are the facts. The calls issued are directed to the different State governors for volunteers to fill up the respective regiments that have fallen below the awful quota through the usual casualties of war. Some additional entire regiments have also been requested which when raised will form necessary reserve corps. The latter may consist of fifty regiments.

A dispatch from Gen Banks at Strasburg, Virginia, yesterday says Col Kenly's command of infantry and cavalry has been driven from Front Royal, with considerable loss in killed, wounded and prisoners. The enemy's force is estimated at from 5,000 to 6,000, and reported as falling back on Front Royal. He probably occupied that place yesterday.

NEW YORK, May 24.—A gentleman just arrived from North Carolina gives the following very interesting items of intelligence: Gen Burnside has seized all the Commissioners of the town of Edenton, and taken them to his headquarters at Newbern, where they are held as hostages for the safe return of the Union pilot who was seized by the rebels while on a visit to his wife. It is reported that the rebels determined to hang him, General Burnside ordered that all the Commissioners shall swing in case the rebels execute their threats.

BALTIMORE, May 24.—The following is from the American's Fortress Monroe correspondent. But little change is noted in affairs at Norfolk. The Mayor and members of Council still refuse to take the oath of allegiance, and all intercourse with the people of Norfolk and Portsmouth is therefore stopped. Gen Wool sent a proclamation to the people of Norfolk this morning, notifying them that the matter was entirely in their hands. As soon as they would acknowledge the supremacy of the Government they should enjoy its fostering care; but while they remained in their present rebellious mood they will be cut off from all the advantages of trade and commerce, and will be governed by strict martial law. Most of the stores are now open and the sale of such goods as they have is progressing as far as can be ascertained. No one is now willing to receive Confederate money at par. Virginia bank and Government notes are received with avidity. Union men are still afraid to express their sentiments in view of the rebellious spirit around.

An enthusiastic Union meeting was held at Portsmouth on Thursday night. Not less 800 were present. The course of the Government in refusing to allow provisions to come there for loyal people was severely criticized. The property of such a course is by no means approved. The scarcity of provisions and the necessaries of life is so great that the poorer classes live almost entirely on fish and oysters. The Secessionists are nearly all wealthy people, who have had in a stock of provisions long since.

It was reported at Norfolk yesterday, that Burnside had taken Wilson.

Union Flags.

We shall expect to see every Union flag in the city unfurled early this morning, and kept triumphantly waving in the free air of heaven. The Union forces of Oregon are to fight a hard battle against secession and treason—a battle at the ballot box for the Union and the maintenance of the Stars and Stripes, hence no better occasion could occur for the display of the colors that all loyal and patriotic soldiers only look to with pride and warm glows of joy under the bulwarks and folds of that proud emblem of our national liberty.

A SPEECH WHAT WAS A SPEECH.—A very large and miscellaneous audience assembled Saturday evening last on the corner of Washington and Front streets to hear Dr. William Cupler Independent and Extra Representative, in about an hour and a half's speech, having been called to order by the ringing of a bell in the hands of the aforesaid Doctor. During the harangue much enthusiasm was manifested in frequent manifestations of applause which greeted the ears of the Doctor. His speech no doubt acted as a wholesome dyspeptic and to open the hearers. After the Doctor had exhausted himself, Mr. Charles McKay, alias Old Sarsaparilla," was loudly called for, who upon mounting the rostrum was greeted with a tremendous and deafening roar of cheers and hurrahs. We did not stay to hear the latter gentleman throughout his speech, but we are told that he pretty effectually used up the Doctor and all his humbug capital besides highly enlightening and delighting the audience generally. We doubt not the demonstration will not be devoid of a beneficial and salutary effect upon these quacks attendance.

ARRIVED.—The steamship Pacific, Capt. Burns, arrived at Couches wharf yesterday afternoon about half past one o'clock. The news brought by her from the East was one later than we had previously received by overland mail.

We are under obligations to Mr. Bantin, the gentlemanly Purser of the Pacific, for files of late California and Victoria papers, also for the following:

MISCELLANEA.—Steamer [illegible] sailed from San Francisco May 20th at [illegible] Columbia Bar [illegible] arrived at P. M. [illegible]

PASSENGERS.—Mrs. E. Stowell and child, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Fish, Mrs. J. Moore, Pilwer Rider, Mrs. P. White, Clark and wife, 2 in steerage, —Thrift, D. W. Lee, [illegible] Miss. J. Gilliam, W. H. Taylor, [illegible] Stone, Lewis, Rev. Mr. Pulsifer and lady, Miller, Mr. Dodge, E. Rogers, Miss F. E. Curtis, Mr. Irwin, S. Eaton, Mrs. Hall and lady, Jaffree, Mr. W. H. Ricks, J. D. Hall, C. F. Boyd, James Brackett, D. B. Mc. [illegible], Miss Ellis, S. A. White, J. Morgan, W. O. [illegible], Mr. Lowe, R. H. Condon, J. Weather, Jon. Allen, Mr. J. [illegible], wife and three children, D. Mc. [illegible], Mrs. Fish, J. Schreiber, Miss C. Wiggle, Mr. Sparks, Miss Dixon, Mrs. Gilmore, Mr. W. Rathbone, Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger), and 100 in steerage.

BENT'S CIRCUS.

ANOTHER MAN SHOT.—Mr. Adam Lindsay, proprietor of the Shakespeare Saloon, was shot by J. A. Levison, a barkeeper in the Free and Easy Saloon, both of which are on Front street, in the lower part of the city. The affray occurred early on Saturday morning last, and the wound inflicted is said to be severe though not dangerous. Levison was arrested and brought before Justice Barr for trial, but the case was postponed until Tuesday next.

THE water in the Willamette has receded a few inches within the last 24 hours. The Columbia is also falling, and it is to be hoped that we have seen the highest point to which the water may reach this year—as for all future time.

BEAR IN MIND.—That stories printed or told derogatory to candidates on the eve of election, are, ninety nine times out of a hundred, lies.

THE steamer Pacific which arrived yesterday, will sail direct for San Francisco on Wednesday next.

THE Columbia river was falling rapidly at Dalles on Saturday morning, and at night had fallen an inch and a half at Vancouver.

THE LOWER COLUMBIA.—We are informed that the water in the lower Columbia on Sunday morning last, was six inches higher than it ever has been since the great flood of 1856, and still rising. Scarcely a farm on the lower banks of the river from Vancouver to Oak Point, remains uncovered.

SALMON SCARCENESS.—The [illegible] Union Democratic candidates will be very scarce at 12 o'clock to night. What an awful summer it will be for the next several days! Hoo for the "Salt river." The boat will start to-morrow morning at six o'clock precisely—passage, free. Good bye gentlemen. We wish you a safe and cheerful voyage. You have had your day, turn forth the ark and wait for you an eternal, ago men as [illegible] shame and disgrace.

Why is the so called Democratic candidate for Congress from Oregon like an advocate for the Bank of England? To borrow Government for certain purposes? Because he is a bold weight? (Wait.)

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL.—We have San Francisco commercial dates to the 21st inst. We make a few quotations: Flour per bbl., $8 75; Wheat $2 [illegible] per lb; Oats, Chile, $1 55 per 100 lbs; Hay $25 per ton.

Why is the so called Democratic ticket like some to come out behind? Because they have best name on it.

The Farmer's Courtship.

Letty Martin was an orphan. She had been left at a tender age to the care of her brother and sister. Uncle Martin, a plain, well-to-do farmer, and Aunt Lucy, a wealthy widow lady in the city. She had spent most of her time mostly at Uncle Martin's where she was loved and cared for with the tenderness of friends. But two years previous to the time the wheat's story opens, Mrs. Gray, for some reason, left her brother's, and seeing what a lovely girl Letty had grown and having married off her own daughters, insisted upon her spending the winter with her. To this, Uncle Martin tenderly objected, fearing, as he said, that her head would be turned with nonsense and city fashions. But Mrs. Gray carried her point and Letty went. Here she was initiated into all the light and more elegant accomplishments, that in the thorough education her Uncle had given her, he had deemed unnecessary. Early the next autumn her Aunt came for her again, and she did not return to Uncle Martin's till the next year at midsummer.

There was but one point in Letty's character with which her Uncle was dissatisfied, and this was to him a source of great regret and anxiety. Had he been blessed with a family of sons and daughters it might have been different, but Letty was to him all in all, in her all their hopes and plans for the future were centred.

Uncle Martin had been born and bred a farmer—he never looked beyond, or we might say, beneath it. From his point of observation, agriculture was the great lever, the motive power that controlled all other trades and professions. If he did not look upon other branches of business with disdain and contempt, it was because his honest, generous heart was incapable of this element of bitterness. Farming, with him was not a species of drudgery, worried through with for the equivalent it would yield. His farm was his pride, his pleasure, his delight. On it everything was well ordered and thrifty, the appointments in good keeping, substantial and attractive. He possessed the happy faculty of combining the useful with the ornamental. There was not a preponderance of this, and a lack of something else quite as essential. Everything received from him its share of attention in due season.

And now that he was passing the meridian of life, it was the great wish of his heart to see the farm where his life had been spent and his energies contributed to render it comfortable, profitable, and attractive home—a home for Letty, her children and her children's children. And though she had always entered heartily and with evident pleasure into all the little affairs incident to the life of a farmer's daughter, he had latterly noticed a growing aversion to a farmer's life when she should be settled in the world. This in the main might have arisen from the comparisons she had involuntarily drawn between the refined, polished young men who had shown her attentions in the city, and the rude, awkward, mannerless fellows, who are too often the rule—with rare exceptions—in the farming districts. And indeed her uncle could scarcely reconcile himself to wed his lovely niece, with her superior education, and well bred graceful manners, to one of the rough, uncultivated young farmers in their neighborhood.

At this time the arrival of young Lee was to him a godsend. He came to the town of D— the winter previous, to deliver a lecture on agriculture, in which capacity he had been canvassing the State. The subject of farming, brought up as the basis of a public lecture, was a novelty to the people of this locality. The able manner in which the intelligent young lecturer treated the subject was, to many, a matter of great wonderment; to some of the old fash'd farmers, the innovations on their time honored customs and habits, were received with murmurs of dissatisfaction and contempt. The adaptation of scientific improvements to their worn out lands, the various modes of fertilization that, all unthought of, lay within their reach, the invention of many useful articles of husbandry and various other points presented for their consideration, were scouted at as Yankee tricks and humbugs. But to the younger and more intelligent portion of the farming community, the many useful hints for improvement that lay within their immediate reach, brought by them into practice, commenced a new era in their lives as agriculturists.

Mr. Martin received the lecturer with unbounded delight; it was the realization of what he had looked forward to with hopeful anticipations all his life. And when in the ensuing summer he put his faith into practice, by purchasing a lot of wild land in the adjoining town, and going energetically to work to convert it into a model farm, Uncle Martin said to his wife Abigail, "Polly, he's the very fellow for our Letty." But that Letty entertained different views for herself is probably evident so far as our story has progressed.

A few weeks have flown by, and we find Letty on this clear, cold evening, sitting alone on the broad stone hearth, before the piled up flaming logs, chopping mince meat for pies. As her little, white hands flash up and down in the rosy glow of the fire-light, wielding the sharp edged chopping-knife, her eyes watch the wreathing flames, curling over the large tea kettle that balanced so evenly on the crane, sends forth a volume of steam, singing a merry duet with the purring cat in Aunt Nubby's rocker. Like every girl and maiden since mother Eve's time, she is weaving dazzling pictures of her future. Castles of baseless fabric rear themselves in her imagination, to be followed in quick succession by others of more vivid splendor and elegance. Every castle has its hero, and among the brilliant galaxy of manly elegance and nobleness, we sometimes distinguish a new face till lately foreign to Letty's day dreams, and which she now puts aside with a "Nonsense!" and a "Pshaw," an additional crimson flushing her cheeks, and perchance the next castle her ready pencil paints he turns up again! But these rainbow hued visions that never have a realization this side of the golden portal were suddenly dispelled by a loud knock at the outer door.

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—and—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and is kept in order should not make a tight stitch, and on both sides of the work it should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to sew cotton thread or silk readily from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and fine back to thin with rapidity and with ease changing the tension. It should also not make the tension cut the thread on the under and upper threads, and when the thread is broken, it should leave a straight needle hole, and not split the thread, liable to break.

The needle should have a medium motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder from with a hemmer should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work well.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides with two and four different colored threads or silk above or below the work, or with any two colors of the two united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed, no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order, neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to fly the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side of the work.

The undersigned are General Agents for the general supervision of these unrivaled machines for Pacific States and Western Coast of Mexico.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, (Room No. 9 over the Express Office),

Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT Cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M.D. Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician of the 20th Regiment of Honved, Chief Surgeon of the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Medical Faculty College of Medicine, Paris, also attends exclusively to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Hours—From 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Also Consultation strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed in every case undertaken. Consultations by letter or otherwise, $5.

Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause. Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Copper Colored Pimples, Pills, &c. Nervous Prostration, or all diseases arising from the excesses or indiscretion of the sexual organs—such as Nocturnal Pollutions, Lost Manhood, Impotency, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with a duller sight appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Evil Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Seminal Emissions—and all impurity or discharges of both sexes, it matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or of what the case, recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all the usual means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California I have treated many thousands of cases of the above nature, many of whom in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place the case under my care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is rarely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution filling the system with mercury which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by the virus which betrays itself in scrofula, fetter ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its victims by hundreds of victims through years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system rapidly, wasting away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, begets sadness, loneliness, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wretched in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the young and middle aged victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to sound vigor of health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by the most wonderful cures—Medicines will be sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory by the patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business relations strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, between Montgomery and Kearny, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having received their former health, and impelled by gratitude make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statement are authenticated by Notary Public. The demands for cures impertinently command their publicity, and we comply, and their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, afflicted for many years of a painful disease, was induced, after having tried in vain every means of relief, to call upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the purpose of consulting him professionally. After a short time, under the treatment of Dr. C., I was entirely relieved of my complaint, and now feel perfectly restored to health. I therefore take pleasure in recommending Dr. C. to all persons afflicted with any disease of a private nature, as I have every confidence in his skill as a physician, and his honorable treatment of his patients.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have tried the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need more as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the [illegible]. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but the night you said, but be able to do so, I could trace the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] nerves so that I would not get excited and [illegible] anything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of his satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms and the removal of those sores and ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] rage of those maladies which you said were the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest my joy or my surprise, for except a little [illegible] I get my strength. I feel as well as any man can feel.

In closed I send you twenty dollars over [illegible] think myself cheaply cured. If you think my [illegible] benefited you may put this letter in the [illegible] remain gratefully yours,

THOMAS [illegible].
